The Gathering

Prelude

*Call to Worship

God calls us to worship, lifting our voices and our hearts in praise.

God calls us to worship, lifting our hands and our resources to serve.

God calls us to worship, when we are together and when we are alone.

God calls us to worship, in the sanctuary and on the street corner.

God calls us to worship, with our everyday choices and our Sunday best.

God calls us to worship, in song and prayer and in doing justice and loving kindness.

God calls us to worship.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession from Amos 7

Lord, with a plumb line in your hand — you stand beside the walls we have built. What once were straight, strong walls of protection, sanctuaries against all that might harm us, are now revealed to be bowed, bulging, weak walls of separation we have used to conceal ourselves within dark prisons of our own making. We know your perfect judgment finds us wanting. Free us, Lord; We are our own worst enemies. Level our feeble fortresses, and rebuild us in the strength of your love and your forgiveness. Open us to your way, and give us courage to walk your path of healing, reconciliation, justice, and peace. Amen.

Silent Prayers of Confession

*Assurance of Pardon and Sharing of the Peace

God is pleased to pour salvation upon us, drenching us in the waters of grace and hope. Thanks be to God! We will rejoice and be glad in the One who delivers us from our brokenness and who makes us whole. And now, let us share the grace we have received, passing the peace and greeting one another. The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

Feel free to move around greeting new friends and old
