Call To Confession

Prayer of Confession

God, you are a storyteller, and you made us in your image. You spoke, and you still speak, through unexpected people, through silence, through your word written and proclaimed through the centuries. We come to hear your story once again, to find our place among your people and within your vision for all creation. We hear You call us to share your story in our words and in our actions, but we confess that more often our lips are sealed. We are afraid to tell your story. We think we don't know enough, and we are afraid of offending. We prefer to keep you to ourselves.

Yet still Your word, O Lord, is a lamp to our feet and a light to our path.

Forgive us for letting the book gather dust on the shelf, and the story gather dust in our hearts. Speak to us, and through us, Lord.

Help us to know you so well that we cannot help but love you, and to love you so much we cannot help but serve you, sharing your good news in every place, for it is in doing your will that we find perfect freedom.

We pray in the name of the one who is your Living Word, Jesus the Christ.

Silent Prayers of Confession

Assurance of Pardon and Passing of the Peace

Sisters and brothers, siblings in Christ, the power of resurrection is at work in us and with us! Through the former things of our lives and in the new heaven and earth that God is yet creating, the Spirit of Christ leads us onto paths of victory over sorrow and death, disbelief and fear. Receive God's grace in the secret place in your heart, where there are no words. For the forgiveness of God is too marvelous for words.

Since God has forgiven us in Christ, let us forgive one another and share the grace we have received. The peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

As you greet one another, feel free to move around the sanctuary welcoming new friends and old
