Call To Confession

Prayer of Confession

Faithful God, we bring all of ourselves before you. You know our deeds and you know our hearts. We confess that we have fallen short of the plans you have for us. We push back against our callings, in favor of comfort, security, and ease. We miss opportunities to share your grace with the people who need it the most. We fall to our knees and ask for guidance, while overlooking the gifts you have multiplied around us. Forgive us O Lord. Bless us with your limitless mercy. We ask for your grace, guidance, and trust, so that we may live into your Word more fully, with gratitude on our lips and joy in our hearts.

Silent Prayers of Confession

Assurance of Pardon and Passing of the Peace

We confess together as a community of faith and hope. By joining our voices, we deepen our connections with each other and with God. Recognizing that, despite our differences, we all meet in our brokenness.

We are forgiven.

Despite our differences, we all meet in the forgiveness we receive.

We are loved.

Despite our differences, we are all equally beloved children of God. Now let us celebrate the grace and love we have received, confident that the Peace of Christ is with us all. Peace be with you...

And also with you!

As you greet one another, feel free to move around the sanctuary welcoming new friends and old

The Word

Prayer for Illumination

Lord, open our hearts and minds by the power of your Holy Spirit, that we may listen for your Word, and we may hear with joy what you say to us today. Amen.

Scripture (read responsively)

Psalm 40:1-10

I waited patiently for the Lord; he inclined to me and heard my cry.

He drew me up from the desolate pit, out of the miry bog, and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure.

He put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many will see and fear and put their trust in the Lord. Happy are those who make the Lord their trust, who do not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after false gods.

You have multiplied, O Lord my god, your wondrous deeds and your thoughts toward us; none can compare with you.

Were I to proclaim and tell of them, they would be more than can be counted.

Sacrifice and offering you do not desire, but you have given me an open ear. Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required.

Then I said, "Here I am; in the scroll of the book it is written of me.

I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart."

I have told the glad news of deliverance in the great congregation; see, I have not restrained my lips, as you know, O Lord. I have not hidden your saving help within my heart

I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation;

I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness from the great congregation.
