An open and affirming community, celebrating God's love for all by seeking a caring and just society: there is a place for you here.

Prelude

*Call to Worship

We are called to love God with our whole being. Be welcome in this place where we practice that love, where we learn what it means to offer our whole selves.

Let us worship God!

*Hymn 301

Let Us Build a House

Call to Confession

Responsive Prayer of Confession

Great One, Holy One, Body and soul, we belong to you. This simple truth could guide our lives, but it seldom does. When we forget to love our neighbors as ourselves, it is because we have forgotten to love you. Forgive us for being of two minds. Forgive us our difficulty in following you with full devotion. May we see your commands as a path of life and not a list of rules. Write on our hearts, again and again, your message of love. Amen.

Silent Prayer and Assurance of Pardon

The assurance of God's love is always there for us. However, as a spiritual discipline during Lent we will refrain from speaking the Words of the Assurance, Passing the Peace, and announcements. We will spend some extra time in prayer and silent reflection. When we return to these the words of assurance beyond Lent, may we do so with renewed appreciation because we have experienced their absence.

*Hymn 45

I To The Hills Will Lift My Eyes (Psalm 121)

Prayer request cards collected during this hymn

Prayer for Illumination

Living God, help us so to hear your holy Word that we may truly understand; that understanding, we may believe; and believing, we may follow in all faithfulness and obedience, seeking your honor and glory in all that we do.
Amen

Scripture

Mark 12:1-17

Sermon
