Call to Worship (from Psalm 116)

Leader: I love the LORD, because he has heard my voice and my supplications. Because he inclined his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live.

People: I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD, I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people.

Leader: Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

People: I will offer to you a thanksgiving sacrifice and call on the name of the LORD. I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people.

Call to Confession (Liturgist only)

We hide our pain, our brokenness and our mistakes. We try to erase them from the stories we tell ourselves and tell each other. The God who created us, however, knows our true stories and loves us anyway. God dreams a story for us and invites us to live into that whole story, the good chapters and the difficult ones. Together, let us claim the stories that fill our hearts.

Let us pray.

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, our sins are too heavy to carry, too real to hide, and too deep to undo. Forgive the story we are slow to confess. Set us free from the past we cannot change and open us to a future in which we can be changed. Grant us grace to grow more and more in your likeness and image and help us to live into the stories we are called to live in you.

Silent Prayers of Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Hear the good news. Christ, who wrote his own story, has died for us, rose for us and now reigns in power for us. We who are in Christ are a new creation, where our old life has gone and a new life has begun. Rejoice. In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

Thanks be to God!

Prayer for Illumination

Holy Lord, you created us and gave us speech. Give us the words we hear today, that they may be heard clearly in our hearts and minds and souls. Bring us your Spirit so we may hear from you this day. Amen.
