A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

-Johann Gottfried Walther

Welcome and Opening Prayer

*Call to Worship

I will exalt you, O Lord because you have lifted me up and have not let my enemies triumph over me.

O Lord my God, I cried out to you, and you restored me to health.

Sing to the Lord, give thanks for the remembrance of his holiness.

For his wrath endures for the twinkling of an eye, his favor for a lifetime.

Weeping may spend the night, but joy comes in the morning Let us worship God.

*Hymn #39

Great is thy Faithfulness

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Loving and merciful God, you have given us much for which to be thankful. And yet we grumble. You show us the power of unfettered love while we seek to portion it out. We try to save it only for those for whom we already share love. We push aside those we believe to be the least of us, ignoring your commandment to love one another...the hungry, the poor, the imprisoned, the different....and not just to love them, but to love them as you have loved us. Too often instead of inviting the best in others, we focus on getting the best of them, and in so doing, we reveal the worst in us. Sometimes we take pleasure in pointing out the stumbles of others. We exploit their weakness to make us appear to be the strong ones. But holding a person down does not exalt us. It lowers us. Help us abandon our foolish pride, unsettle our hearts, and turn us around so we can be reminded of our need of redemption, and then when we begin to honestly acknowledge our sins, remind us that though we fall, though we fail.... Your love and your grace abounding grace lift us up and place us on the right path again.....and again.

Silent Prayer of Confession

Assurance of Pardon and Passing of the Peace

The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abundant in love. He does not treat us as our sins deserve but instead bestows unending mercy to those with contrite hearts. My friends we are forgiven.

Thanks be to God.

Prayer for Illumination

Lord, open our hearts and minds by the power of your Holy Spirit, that as the scriptures are read and your word is proclaimed, we may be inspired as you light the pathway you would have us follow in your name.

Amen
