Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Holy One, we see you calm storms, restore what was broken, and bring peace to what was decimated by war, and yet we struggle to trust you. The storms still come, what is meant for wholeness breaks into pieces again, and peace fails to stand its ground against new battle lines. We lift up our eyes to the hills asking where does our help come from? And the answer is that our help comes from you, our Lord, the maker of heaven and earth....and then we ask, "But when?" Forgive us when we ask the question but don't accept and trust the answer. And forgive us for not seeing the role you would have us take in ensuring the answer, when your response depends on us, the people of God....the hands, the feet, and the heart of God. Forgive us and restore us once more.

Assurance of Pardon

The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love. He does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him. As far as the east is from the west, so far has he moved our transgressions from us. My friends, we are forgiven.
